

BAME Ed Senior Leadership

For school leaders from Black, Asian and minority ethnic communities who are, or are aspiring to be, a senior leader with cross-school responsibilities.

Leadership Learning
Securing Excellence

- Our content is developed by school leaders and domain specialists in partnership with BAME Ed. We utilise a strong evidence base to provide materials designed to enhance your knowledge and skill
- Our programmes are expertly facilitated by experienced school and HEI leaders who contextualise the materials to respond to your local context
- You'll access an excellent online learning platform, making your learning accessible anytime, anywhere
- We provide additional opportunities to build networks and communities with other BAME leaders.

What will I study?

This course will equip you with the knowledge and skills to make evidence informed decisions about senior leadership. You will be confident in leading and supporting others to develop their practice, and skilled at implementing sustainable change across a range of areas like classroom practice, behaviour and culture, organisational management and working in partnership with others.

How will I study?

Our courses offer a blend of approaches to study:

- > Face to face facilitated workshops
- > Online facilitated live webinars
- > Online study, including engagement with research, opportunities to tackle scenarios, individually reflect and collectively contribute to discussion activities
- > Work with a coach

What is it like to do this course?

"I think that the resources are really valuable and have really made me reflect on how we initiate change and also re-think strategies that we currently use. I would have found it difficult to know where to start with some of these without this training."
